

Presbyterian Rally Day Next Sunday.

Rally Day in all departments—Sunday school, church and Christian Endeavor.

At 11 o'clock there will be reception of members and the administration of the Lord's Supper. Every member and all the friends of the congregation it is hoped will be present.

At 7:30 there will be a special song service with solos by Miss Lillian Austin and Mr. Paul Frye and an anthem by the choir. The pastor will begin a series of addresses to continue every Sunday night through October on "Heroes of History." The subject next Sunday night will be "John Huss, the Martyr." 500 years ago July 6 he was burned to death by the Papal power and his ashes cast into the river Rhine "that nothing might remain of him to pollute the earth."

Sunday school will begin promptly at 9:45 (as it always does). The classes will begin at 10 sharp and close promptly at 10:30, after which a special Rally Day program will be given. Please be prompt. We are expecting 200 at Sunday school next Sunday: will you be one of them?

The Christian Endeavor Society at 6:30 will have Rally with a carefully prepared program. Some of the plans for the winter's work will be considered. All the members are expected to be present and a cordial invitation is extended to strangers and visitors.

The Ladies' Aid Society meets on Tuesday with Mrs. Flora Hind.

The Missionary Society will be entertained next Wednesday, October 6, at 2:30, by Mrs. Emma Martin and Mrs. Lyons at Mrs. Martin's, with the following program: Devotions, Mrs. Emma Cummins. Foreign Topic, Mrs. C. L. Riley. Home Topic, Miss Jennie Foster. Study Book, Chapter 4. Mrs. Carrie Lehner. Business. Roll Call.

Our people are invited to attend the meetings which continue at the Evangelical church every night this week. T. A. CLAGETT, Pastor.

Obituary.

Samuel C. Nash was born at Welshfield, Post Office, Geauga County, Ohio, July 14, 1843, and died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Robert Johnson, of Norcatur, Kansas, September 16, 1915.

When two years old he moved with his parents to Dane County, Wisconsin, near Mount Vernon. In 1855 he, with his parents, removed to Taylor county, Ohio, where he resided until 1867, when he came to Holt county, Missouri.

He was united in marriage to Mrs. Amelia Babb, November 18, 1868. To this union nine children were born.

In the spring of 1882, he with his family, with the exception of one child, Mrs. Bert Breier, who was left in the care of her grand-mother, Mrs. Susan Brodbeck, moved to Pawnee County, Kansas, where they lived on the farm until 1892, when they moved to Seward, Kansas.

Mrs. Nash died April 27, 1914, and since that time Mr. Nash had made his home with his children.

Those who survive him are: Mrs. Amanda Erway, Rozel, Kansas; Mrs. Susan Johnson, Norcatur, Kansas; Mrs. Lula Dreher, Oregon, Missouri; J. H. Nash, Fresno, California; Mrs. Ida Payton, Burden, Kansas; Mrs. Flora Payton, Fresno, California; Mrs. Nellie Payton, Rozel, Kansas; Mrs. Della Rose, Pawnee Rock, Kansas; S. H. Nash, Kinsley, Kansas; twenty-six grandchildren. Mr. Nash also leaves one sister, Mrs. Mercy Eager, of Sheldon, Iowa.

He enlisted in the 29th Iowa Infantry, Company G, August 9, 1862, and was discharged on August 10, 1865, by reason of services being no longer required. He was wounded at Jenkins Ferry, Arkansas.

Mr. Nash was a faithful member of the M. E. church, and spent much of his time in prayer.

The funeral services were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Amanda Erway, on September 22, and were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Virgil Darby, of Seward, Kansas.

The body was laid to rest in the Larned cemetery to await the Resurrection Morn.

Buy Land Now!

You can make no better investment right now than to buy Western farm land—and do it before the high prices of and great demand for agricultural products force a big increase in values. In the Big Horn Basin and in the North Platte Valley, irrigated farms are being cut in two and offered for sale on very favorable terms. All crops there are the heaviest on record. You can secure a Government irrigated farm near Powell, Wyo., almost as a gift. Ask about this. The value of this year's crop, on thousands of acres in Nebraska and Colorado, is equal to the original cost of the land.

If you are not fixed to buy, even on easy terms, take a 320 acre Mondell homestead in Wyoming, for mixed dairy farming. Look the West over now. You can ride all day through miles and miles of bumper crops and make your own deduction as to what this condition means to the man who will buy land in these localities now. Write me. I can help you. My services are free. S. B. Howard, Immigration Agent, Room 409 Q Bldg., Omaha, Neb.
